CONFERENCE ANNOUNCEMENT

The Centre of Full Employment and Equity (CoffEE) at the University of Newcastle will be hosting its third conference entitled The Path to Full Employment.

It will be held at the Shortland Union at the University of Newcastle, West Campus, University Drive, Callaghan NSW 2308, with the conference dinner being held at the University Club, West Campus.

Thursday 14th June 2001 and Friday 15th June 2001.

The Centre of Full Employment and Equity fosters high quality research and policy analysis that focuses on the creation and maintenance of full employment and equity in Australia.

Newcastle is situated in the Lower Hunter Valley of NSW and is considered one of Australia's best kept secrets. There is plenty to see and do. You can visit the many high quality restaurants in the area, visit the art gallery, or the many vineyards of the Hunter. You can also relax and enjoy the wonderful scenic views of the Newcastle beaches and Lake Macquarie shores.

I look forward to meeting you, or catching up with you at the conference.

Professor Bill Mitchell,
Director, Centre of Full Employment & Equity
